

Doing Justice

Models for Legal Clinic at HILS

Shin Young Chung

Table of Contents

I. Introduction	1
A. Why Legal Clinics?	1
B. Purpose of This Paper	1
II. Legal Clinics in American Law Schools	2
A. History of Legal Clinics in the States	2
B. How They Are Operated	4
i. Types of the Clinics	4
ii. Legal Clinics as Courses	6
1. Substantive Areas	6
2. Required/ Elective Course	6
3. Learning Modes	7
4. In-House, Live Client Clinics	8
5. Classroom Component	8
6. Casework Component	8
7. Field Placement Program	9
8. Faculty at Legal Clinic	10
III. Legal Clinics in East Asia	11
A. China	11
i. Legal Education in China	11
ii. Legal Clinics in China	12
B. Japan	13
i. Legal Education in Japan	13
ii. Clinical Legal Education in Japan	14
iii. Waseda University Law School	16
1. Civil Law Clinic	16
2. Criminal Justice Clinic	17
3. Refugee and Immigration Law Clinic	17
4. Externships	18
C. Korea	18
i. Legal Education in Korea	18
ii. Clinical Legal Education in Korea	19
iii. Korea University Law School ? CLEC	21
1. History	21
2. Organizations	21
i. Community Clinics	22
ii. Disabilities Clinic	22

iii. Human Rights Clinic for Foreigners	23
iv. Internet Law Clinic	23
v. CLEC Forum	24
3. Curriculum	24
4. Remarks	25
IV. Suggestions for HILS	25
A. Who We Are	25
i. Our Strength	25
ii. Our Limitations	25
B. Possible Clinics	26
i. Migrant Worker Clinic	26
ii. ADR Clinic	27
iii. Women's Hope Center Legal Clinic	29
iv. Other Possible Clinics	29
V. Conclusion	30